

Military Training that Transfers to College Credit

As Bates strives to better serve our military students, we are growing our list of military training that will transfer for college credit. The list below is just the beginning. Transfer credit may be available for programs that are not listed below. Make sure that you send your military transcript to the Registration office for review of transferability.

General Education

Most of Bates Technical College's associate degrees require 15 credits of general education in the fields of Communications, Mathematics and Human Relations. Please provide all of your transcripts to the Registration office for review, so that you can save time and money with transfer credit.
